She in Turn Accuses Her Husband of Twice Trying to Poison Her and Making Her a Prisoner.

CLAIRVOYANT AGAINST HER.

Brooklyn Secress Says Girl of Fifteen Won Her Young Son Away from Home-Woman Turns on Accusers and Causes Scene In Court.

After two years of married life, dur-ing which time the child wife of Frederick Piel, forty years old, of No. 845 Broadway, Brooklyn, alleges he twice attempted to poison her and beat her unmercifully, she had him arraigned in the Gates Avenue Court this morning, charged with abandonment.

The couple eloped two years ago. Mrs. Martha Peil was only fifteen years old then. Her husband was arrested on a charge of abduction. The child's mother asserted he had kidnapped her daughter. Pell was allowed to go on his promise to care for her.

She told Magistrate Furlong her husband had been cruel to her ever since they were married. She said he took her clothes away from her and locked her in a room for days at a time. He did not give her food and she escaped severaltimes from the house in scanty attire and sought shelter at a neigh-her and dragged her home and then he would beat her until she was unable to Peil in his defense tried to blacken his child-wife's character. Mrs. Lena Stuft, a clairvoyant, said she told Pell that his wife had hypnotized her fifteen-year-old son, Otto, and he spent most of his time under her influence. The boy swore he had been indiscree with the girl-wife and said his mothe had first discovered it. Under cross-examination he denied the story.

A. L. ASHMAN DIES AT SEVENTY-ONE.

prietor of the Sinclair House, at No. 754 Broadway, dled at 4:10 o'clock this morning of intestinal trouble, from which he had long been a sufferer. Many physicians examined and treated Mr. Ashman, and all were surprised that he lived after the perforation of his intestines by some foreign matter eight years ago. He had been confined to his bed much of the time.

Mr. Ashman was born in Lakeville, Livingston County, N. Y., May 12, 1831, and came of a family that was promiment in the early settlement of Connecticut, and later of the Genesee Valley. One of his ancestors came to this coun try on the Arabella, which came soon after the Mayflower. After having received an education at the Genesee Wsleyan Seminary at Lima, N. Y., Mr. Ashman went to Buffalo, where he became a printer.

In 1857 he came to New York and opened a cafe on the northwest corner of Broadway and Eighth street. He took a lease on the Sinclair House in 1860, and had remained in possession of tever since, adding to the property from time to time. He also owned the Hotel Boniface at One Hundred and Third street and Columbus avenue and other property.
